

Fig. 2. Views of a normally vascularized self hydroxyapatite orbital implant at 6 months. There is uniform intense activity within the implant, greater than that of the adjacent nasal bridge. (A) Planar study anterior projection. (B) Planar study lateral projection. (C) Transverse noninvasive SPECT image.